

Who is SCCUDD?

The Schuyler County Coalition on Underage Drinking and Drugs (SCCUDD) is a group of concerned adult and youth community members, businesses, schools, and agencies who want to make a positive impact on the lives of our youth by reducing underage alcohol and other drug use.

Anyone who wants to help reduce youth substance use in the community can join!

SCCUDD was formed in April 2006 after a public health survey showed the #1 concern among Schuyler County residents was alcohol and drug use.

WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER!

WHAT WE DO

Our mission is to prevent, reduce and delay the onset of substance use among Schuyler County youth by collaborating with community partners, promoting prevention education and substance-free activities and implementing environmental strategies.

SCCUDD's vision is a connected community where our youth have education, resources, and drug-free options to help in their journey to become happy, healthy adults.

Did you know?

Parents are one of the main reasons young people decide not to drink. Talk to your kids early and often—before they start drinking alcohol—about the consequences of underage drinking and why you disapprove. It may not seem like it, but they are listening.

Helpful tips from the “Talk. They Hear You.”[®] campaign

- Show you disapprove of underage drinking and other drug misuse.
- Show you care about your child’s health, wellness, and success.
- Show you’re a good source of information about alcohol and other drugs.
- Show you’re paying attention and you’ll discourage risky behaviors.
- Build your child’s skills and strategies for avoiding underage drinking and drug use.
